

80 Frost Road, Brahma Lodge

Character home in Brahma Lodge

Centrally located in Brahma Lodge is this charming home built 1955 (approx.), is stylishly updated and finished with heritage features throughout. It is a wonderful surprise package waiting for a new family to make it their own!

Situated on a generous 506m2 (approx.) corner allotment, this house is fully fenced for privacy with a combination of cream render and wood panelling, making the yard both secure and functional, utilizing the entire space around the home.

Approaching the welcoming front porch, you can already feel the classical charm of yesteryear! Starting with the impressive 3-metre-high ceilings and polished timber flooring that flows throughout the home, ornate cornices, attractive ceiling roses and high colonial skirtings decorate the home. To your left is a generous sized light filled lounge room that leads to the adjacent dining room.

The large kitchen has been thoughtfully refreshed, keeping in the character of the home, it is fully of light with ample bench space and has modern stainless-steel appliances.

The bedrooms are generous in size and this home is complete with separate toilet and combined laundry & classic refreshed bathroom including freestanding bath tub.
